

2026 Healing Oasis HOMECOMING Conference
“Resilience in Motion: Comparative Rehabilitation & Manual Therapies for All Beings.”
Oct 23rd – 25th, 2026

Friday, October 23rd, 2026, 1-6 PM (MAX of 6 CE contact hours)

12:00 – 12:50 PM	Greer: Better Sex Through Neurology Part I – Adult Age
1:00 – 1:50 PM	Greer: Better Sex Through Neurology Part II – Helping the Growing Puppies
1:50 - 2:20 PM	BREAK
2:20 – 3:10 PM	Nielsen: Scapular Strength and Deceleration Control: Conditioning the Canine Shoulder Using Human Performance Models
3:20 – 4:10 PM	Nielsen: The Engine Room: Comparative Core and Hip Conditioning for Speed, Power, and Injury Resistance
4:10 – 4:45 PM	BREAK
4:45 – 5:35 PM	Yoquelet: Making the Golden Years Count – Physical Rehabilitation for the Geriatric Patient
5:45 – 6:35 PM	Get Together – Cutting Edge Laser Technologies Lecture TBD

Saturday, October 24th, 2026 (Max of 9 CE contact hours)

Breakfast sponsored by TBD

CANINE TRACK

EQUINE TRACK

8:00 – 8:50 AM	Tomlinson: Canine spinal motion for bipeds, differences with canine patients.	Henry: TMJ and Dental Pathologies affecting performance
9:00 – 9:50 AM	Tomlinson: Not just trigger points - update on the myofascial system in the dog.	Henry: The Stomatognathic Systems, What They Forgot to Tell Us!
9:50 – 10:20 AM	Break	Break
10:20 – 11:10 AM	Ihrke: Injuries to the shoulder joint – A case-based lecture on diagnosis, therapeutic plan, and return to function.	Brounts: Beyond the Incision: Clinical Management and Physical Therapy Following Colic Surgery
11:20 – 12:10 PM	Ihrke: Injuries to the carpus and tarsus - A case-based lecture on diagnosis, therapeutic plan, and return to function.	Brounts: Elasticity Lost and Found: An Evidence-Based Approach to Equine Tendon and Ligament Rehabilitation
12:20 – 1:45 PM	LUNCH Sponsored by ELvation USA	LUNCH Sponsored by ELvation USA

	Saturday afternoon Canine Track	Saturday afternoon Equine Track
1:45 – 2:35 PM	Linder: Inflammatory Neurologic Disease in Dogs and What We Can Learn from Other	Morauw: Hold your horses: What Really Changes When We Ride?
2:45 – 3:35 PM	Linder: Walk This Way... Or Not: Neuromuscular Diseases in Veterinary Patients	Van Wessum: When unimaginable pathology & rehabilitation meet the fan!
3:35 – 4:05 PM	Break	Break
4:05 – 4:55 PM	LoGiudice: “Colors and Numbers: A look at the use of thermography & stance analyser in practice.”	van Wessum: Kissing Spines or Kidding Spines?
5:05 – 5:55 PM	Ihrke: Cupping – From Head to Toes	Van Wessum: The use of Power Doppler in the Equine Musculoskeletal ultrasound.
5:55 – 6:45 PM	Eat and learn – Sponsored by Platinum Performance Durham: Two Species, One Goal: Optimizing Nutrition for Peak Athletic Performance in Horses & Humans	Eat and learn – Sponsored by Platinum Performance

Sunday, October 25th, 2026 (4 contact hours of CE)

8:00 – 8:50 AM	Thomovsky & Polmateer: Brachial plexus injuries in human and veterinary patients Part I: Compare, Integrate, and its Pathophysiology.
9:00 – 9:50 AM	Thomovsky & Polmateer: Brachial plexus injuries in humans and veterinary patients Part II: Treatment Options Focusing on Rehabilitation
9:50 – 10:15 AM	Break Sponsored by Healing Oasis Wellness Center
10:15 – 11:05 AM	Ludwig: Kinesiology Taping: What, Why, and How?
11:15 – 12:05 PM	Ludwig: Kinesiology Taping: Research and Application – Through Literature Review and Case Presentation